Power of Attorney Testimony

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

We, Affiants, _____, People of the state of Wyoming (as seen in Wyoming Constitution Declaration of Rights Article 1 Section 1) Sui Juris, in this Court of Record, come to you, being trustees of the People, so that you must provide due care. We make the following statements;

Wyoming Constitution Article 1 Section 1: Power Inherent in the People;

“All power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and instituted for their peace, safety and happiness; for the advancement of these ends they have at all times an inalienable and indefeasible right to alter, reform or abolish the government in such manner as they may think proper.”

Wyoming Constitution Article 1 Section 3: Equal Political Rights;

“Since equality in the enjoyment of natural and civil rights is only made sure through political equality, the laws of this state affecting the political rights and privileges of its citizens shall be without distinction of race, color, sex, or any circumstance or condition whatsoever other than individual incompetency, or unworthiness duly ascertained by a court of competent jurisdiction.”

Please notice: _____, are in joint agreement as to care and treatment.

As such, _____, may make lawful medical decisions concerning each other’s care and treatment.

Both _____, are in agreement on this matter;

Maxim of Law- Agreements give the law to the contract. Halk. Max. 118.

Maxim of Law- The expressed agreement of the parties overcomes or prevails against the law, because the agreement of the parties makes the law of the contract. Story, Ag. s 368; Dig. 16, 3, 1, 6; 2 Coke, 73.

Affiants state: No other entity may interfere with our lawful decision-making process. We have freedom to choose treatment, or to refuse treatment. We may choose to seek another opinion. We may choose to prolong or shorten any suggested treatment without restraint or control from any entity except the laws of nature;

Affiants state:

Both parties, _____, agree to this Power of Attorney and so signify that agreement by our autographs on this document.
