Notice of Religious Freedom

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

I, _____, one of the People (as seen in the Pennsylvania State Declaration of Rights, Article 1 Section 1) am giving you this notice that you and your agents may provide due care and carefully act to cease and desist from all interference with the rights of the People;

Pennsylvania Preamble -

“WE, the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, grateful to Almighty God for the blessings of civil and religious liberty, and humbly invoking His guidance, do ordain and establish this Constitution.”

Please Take Notice: From the inception of the State of Pennsylvania, Almighty God was acknowledged. The People’s right to practice religion, in its various forms, was established from that point to the present;

Pennsylvania Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 2: Political Powers;

“All power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority and instituted for their peace, safety and happiness. For the advancement of these ends they have at all times an inalienable and indefeasible right to alter, reform or abolish their government in such manner as they may think proper.”

(Highlight Added for Emphasis)

Please Take Notice: In relation to the rights of one of the People of the State of Indiana, or any other of the 50 states, inalienable means rights which are not capable of being surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights. Black’s Law 5th Ed.

Please Take Further Notice: Within the Pennsylvania State Constitution, there are no provisions for removal of this very first noted basic right of “We, the People;”

Pennsylvania Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 7: Freedom of Press and Speech; Libels;

“The printing press shall be free to every person who may undertake to examine the proceedings of the Legislature or any branch of government, and no law shall ever be made to restrain the right thereof. The free communication of thoughts and opinions is one of the invaluable rights of man, and every citizen may freely speak, write and print on any subject, being responsible for the abuse of that liberty. No conviction shall be had in any prosecution for the publication of papers relating to the official conduct of officers or men in public capacity, or to any other matter proper for public investigation or information, where the fact that such publication was not maliciously or negligently made shall be established to the satisfaction of the jury; and in all indictments for libels the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the facts, under the direction of the court, as in other cases.”

Please Take Notice: Each individual of We, the People, may independently choose how, when, where, and to what extent they will worship ALMIGHTY GOD. This includes, but is not limited to, what each one of the People allows to be done physically, mentally, morally, and/or spiritually. It also includes what may be done to anyone under the authority of We, the People, including our children;

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity or agency may impinge on the decisions of conscience made by one of the People about themselves or those under their authority, their children;

Pennsylvania Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 3: Religious Freedom;

“All men have a natural and indefeasible right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own consciences; no man can of right be compelled to attend, erect or support any place of worship or to maintain any ministry against his consent; no human authority can, in any case whatever, control or interfere with the rights of conscience, and no preference shall ever be given by law to any religious establishments or modes of worship.”

Please Take Notice: The forefathers considered all elected positions and agents of those elected to be servants, trustees, agents, substitute of we the People and that in no way higher than a special class that is greater than the People. Please take further notice that nowhere in any of the 50 Republican States does the government have power over the people.

Please Take Notice: No entity, agency, division, or subdivision may seize any property, papers, effects, or people without proper due process of law. The People must remain secure from all infringement, including the security of the children of the People;

Pennsylvania Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 8: Security From Searches and Seizures;

“The people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers and possessions from unreasonable searches and seizures, and no warrant to search any place or to seize any person or things shall issue without describing them as nearly as may be, nor without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation subscribed by the affiant.”

Pennsylvania Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 6: Trial by Jury;

“Trial by jury shall be as heretofore, and the right thereof remain inviolate. The General assembly may provide, however, by law, that a verdict may be rendered by not less than five-sixths of the jury in any civil case.”

(Highlight Added for Emphasis)

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity, agency or subdivision may, at any time, grant to one group privileges, not granted to all of the People equally. No law shall be enacted granted to any man or woman, citizen, class of citizens, or corporation other than municipal, privileges or immunities, which, upon the same terms, shall not equally belong to all people, citizens or corporations. This may be seen to include those who have decided to receive, or not receive, particular procedures for themselves or their children;

Pennsylvania Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 29: Prohibition against denial or abridgment of equality of rights because of race and ethnicity;

“Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania because of the race or ethnicity of the individual.”

Please Take Notice: In the case of agencies, departments, all associations, and all state elected government agents, as well as any licensed corporation within the state, it will have committed maladministration, and therefore violation of the State Constitution, if that agency department, district, board, association, elected agent or anyone employed by that agent, or state administration as well as those in public corporations, attempt to implement any restrictions of any variety, or any involuntary requirements on any of the men or women, of We, the People;

Please Take Notice: All attempts to impose control over the conscience of the People regarding choices each one makes for his or herself or children, must immediately cease. The Pennsylvania Constitution is clear that these choices of conscience are inalienable privileges as one of the People;

It is my will to resolve these issues in a peaceable and cooperative manner so as to avoid any unnecessary disturbance. I thank you for your immediate action to establish order, to redress my significant concerns, and rectify all abuses of our State Constitution. Please understand that it is your responsibility to distribute this notice to all applicable members. I come to you peaceably trusting your actions will also reflect good intentions and honorable behavior.
