I, _____, one of the People (as seen in the Connecticut Constitution, Article I Section 2) am giving you this notice that you and your agents may provide due care and carefully act to cease and desist from all interference with the rights of the People;

Connecticut Preamble – The People of Connecticut acknowledging with gratitude, the good providence of God, in having permitted them to enjoy a free government; do, in order more effectually to define, secure, and perpetuate the liberties, rights, and privileges which they have derived from their ancestors; hereby, after a careful consideration and revision, ordain and establish the following constitution and form of civil government.

All political power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and instituted for their benefit; and they have at all times an undeniable and infeasible right to alter their form of government in such manner as they may think expedient.

Please Take Notice: In relation to the rights of one of the People of the State of Connecticut, or any other of the 50 states, inalienable means rights which are not capable of being surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights. Black’s Law 5th Ed.

Please Take Further Notice: Within the Connecticut State Constitution, there are no provisions for removal of this very first noted basic right of “We the People;”

It also includes what may be done to anyone under the authority of We, the People, including our children;

Connecticut Constitution – Declaration of Rights, Article I Section 3:

The exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination, shall forever be free to all persons in the state; provided, that the right hereby declared and established, shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or to justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state.

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity or agency may impinge on the decisions of conscience made by one of the People about themselves or those under their authority, their children;

Connecticut Constitution – Declaration of Rights, Article I Section 20:

No person shall be denied the equal protection of the law nor be subjected to segregation or discrimination in the exercise or enjoyment of his or her civil or political rights because of religion, race, color, ancestry, national origin, sex or physical or mental disability.

No law shall be enacted granted to any man or woman, citizen, class of citizens, or corporation other than municipal, privileges or immunities, which, upon the same terms, shall not equally belong to all people, citizens or corporations. This may be seen to include those who have decided to receive, or not receive, particular procedures for themselves or their children;

Connecticut Constitution – Declaration of Rights, Article I Section 18:

No hereditary emoluments, privileges or honors, shall ever be granted, or conferred in this state.

Please Take Notice: In the case of agencies, departments, all associations, and all state elected government agents, as well as any licensed corporation within the state, it will have committed maladministration, and therefore violation of the State Constitution, if that agency department, district, board, association, elected agent or anyone employed by that agent, or state administration as well as those in public corporations, attempt to implement any restrictions of any variety, or any involuntary requirements on any of the men or women, of We, the People;

Please Take Notice: All attempts to impose control over the conscience of the People regarding choices each one makes for his or herself or children, must immediately cease. The Connecticut Constitution is clear that these choices of conscience are inalienable privileges as one of the People;

It is my will to resolve these issues in a peaceable and cooperative manner so as to avoid any unnecessary disturbance. I thank you for your immediate action to establish order, to redress my significant concerns, and rectify all abuses of our State Constitution. Please understand that it is your responsibility to distribute this notice to all applicable members.
