Notice of Religious Freedom

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

I, _____, one of the People (as seen in the Montana State Bill of Rights, Article 2 Section 1) am giving you this notice that you and your agents may provide due care and carefully act to cease and desist from all interference with the rights of the People;

Montana Preamble - We the people of Montana grateful to God for the quiet beauty of our state, the grandeur of our mountains, the vastness of our rolling plains, and desiring to improve the quality of life, equality of opportunity and to secure the blessings of liberty for this and future generations do ordain and establish this constitution.

Please Take Notice: From the inception of the State of Montana, Almighty God was acknowledged. The People's right to practice religion, in its various forms, was established from that point to the present;

Montana Constitution – Declaration of Rights, Article 2 Section 1: Popular Sovereignty
All political power is vested in and derived from the people. All government of right originates with the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole.

Please Take Notice: In relation to the rights of one of the People of the State of Montana, or any other of the 50 states, inalienable means rights which are not capable of being surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights. Black's Law 5th Ed.

Please Take Further Notice: Within the Montana State Constitution, there are no provisions for removal of this very first noted basic right of "We, the People;"

Montana Constitution - Declaration of Rights Article 2 Section 7: Freedom of Speech, Expression, and Press

No law shall be passed impairing the freedom of speech or expression. Every person shall be free to speak or publish whatever he will on any subject, being responsible for all abuse of that liberty. In all suits and prosecutions for libel or slander the truth thereof may be given in evidence; and the jury, under the direction of the court, shall determine the law and the facts.

Please Take Notice: Each individual of We, the People, may independently choose how, when, where, and to what extent they will worship ALMIGHTY GOD. This includes, but is not limited to, what each one of the People allows to be done physically, mentally, morally, and/or spiritually. It also includes what may be done to anyone under the authority of We, the People, including our children;

Montana Constitution - Declaration of Rights Article 2 Section 5: Freedom of Religion

The state shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof.

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity or agency may impinge on the decisions of conscience made by one of the People about themselves or those under their authority, their children;

Montana Constitution - Declaration of Rights Article 2 Section 4: Individual Dignity The dignity of the human being is inviolable. No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws. Neither the state nor any person, firm, corporation, or institution shall discriminate against any person in the exercise of his civil or political rights on account of race, color, sex, culture, social origin or condition, or political or religious ideas.

Please Take Notice: The forefathers considered all elected positions and agents of those elected to be servants, trustees, agents, substitute of we the People and that in no way higher than a special class that is greater than the People. Please take further notice that nowhere in any of the 50 Republican States does the government have power over the people.

Please Take Notice: No entity, agency, division, or subdivision may seize any property, papers, effects, or people without proper due process of law. The People must remain secure from all infringement, including the security of the children of the People;

Montana Constitution - Declaration of Rights Article 2 Section 11: Searches and Seizures

The people shall be secure in their persons, papers, electronic data and communications, homes and effects from unreasonable searches and seizures. No warrant to search any place, to seize any person or thing, or to access electronic data or communications shall issue without describing the place to be searched or the person or thing to be seized, or without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation reduced to writing.

Montana Constitution - Declaration of Rights Article 2 Section 16: The Administration of Justice

Courts of justice shall be open to every person, and speedy remedy afforded for every injury of person, property, or character. No person shall be deprived of this full legal redress for injury incurred in employment for which another person may be liable except as to fellow employees and his immediate employer who hired him in such immediate employer provides coverage under the Workmen's Compensation Laws of this state. Right and justice shall be administered without sale, denial, or delay

Montana Constitution - Declaration of Rights Article 2 Section 17: Due Process of Law

No person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law.

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity, agency or subdivision may, at any time, grant to one group privileges, not granted to all of the People equally. No law shall be enacted granted to any man or woman, citizen, class of citizens, or corporation other than municipal, privileges or immunities, which, upon the same terms, shall not equally belong to all people, citizens or corporations. This may be seen to include those who have decided to receive, or not receive, particular procedures for themselves or their children;

Montana Constitution - Declaration of Rights Article 2 Section 31: Ex Post Facto, Obligation of Contracts, and Irrevocable Privileges

No ex post facto law nor any law impairing the obligation of contracts, or making any irrevocable grant of special privileges, franchises, or immunities, shall be passed by the legislature.

Please Take Notice: In the case of agencies, departments, all associations, and all state elected government agents, as well as any licensed corporation within the state, it will have committed maladministration, and therefore violation of the State Constitution, if that agency department, district, board, association, elected agent or anyone employed by that agent, or state administration as well as those in public corporations, attempt to implement any restrictions of any variety, or any involuntary requirements on any of the men or women, of We, the People;

Please Take Notice: All attempts to impose control over the conscience of the People regarding choices each one makes for his or herself or children, must immediately cease. The Montana Constitution is clear that these choices of conscience are inalienable privileges as one of the People;

It is my will to resolve these issues in a peaceable and cooperative manner so as to avoid any unnecessary disturbance. I thank you for your immediate action to establish order, to redress my significant concerns, and rectify all abuses of our State Constitution. Please understand that it is your responsibility to distribute this notice to all applicable members. I come to you peaceably trusting your actions will also reflect good intentions and honorable behavior.
