Notice of Religious Freedom

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

I, _____, one of the People (as seen in the Colorado State Bill of Rights, Article II Section 1) am giving you this notice that you and your agents may provide due care and carefully act to cease and desist from all interference with the rights of the People;

Colorado Preamble – We, the people of Colorado, with profound reverence for the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, in order to form a more independent and perfect government; establish justice; insure tranquility; provide for the common defense; promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution for the “State of Colorado.”

Please Take Notice: From the inception of the State of Colorado, Almighty God was acknowledged. The People’s right to practice religion, in its various forms, was established from that point to the present;

Colorado Constitution – Bill of Rights Article II, Section 1: Vestment of Political Power
All political power is vested in and derived from the people; all government, of right, originates from the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole.

Please Take Notice: In relation to the rights of one of the People of the State of Colorado, or any other of the 50 states, inalienable means rights which are not capable of being surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights. Black’s Law 5th Ed.

Please Take Further Notice: Within the Colorado State Constitution, there are no provisions for removal of this very first noted basic right of “We, the People;”

Colorado Constitution – Bill of Rights Article II, Section 10: freedom of Speech and Press
No law shall be passed impairing the freedom of speech; every person shall be free to speak, write or publish whatever he will on any subject, being responsible for all abuse of that liberty; and in all suits and prosecutions for libel the truth thereof may be given in evidence, and the jury, under the direction of the court, shall determine the law and the fact.

Please Take Notice: Each individual of We, the People, may independently choose how, when, where, and to what extent they will worship ALMIGHTY GOD. This includes, but is not limited to, what each one of the People allows to be done physically, mentally, morally, and/or spiritually. It also includes what may be done to anyone under the authority of We, the People, including our children;

Colorado Constitution – Bill of Rights Article II, Section 4: Religious Freedom
The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination, shall forever hereafter be guaranteed; and no person shall be denied any civil or political right, privilege or capacity, on account of his opinions concerning religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be construed to dispense with oaths or affirmations, excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the good order, peace or safety of the state. No person shall be required to attend or support any ministry or place of worship, religious sect or denomination against his consent. Nor shall any preference be given by law to any religious denomination or mode of worship.

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity or agency may impinge on the decisions of conscience made by one of the People about themselves or those under their authority, their children;

Colorado Constitution – Bill of Rights Article II, Section 4: Religious Freedom
The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination, shall forever hereafter be guaranteed; and no person shall be denied any civil or political right, privilege or capacity, on account of his opinions concerning religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be construed to dispense with oaths or affirmations, excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the good order, peace or safety of the state. No person shall be required to attend or support any ministry or place of worship, religious sect or denomination against his consent. Nor shall any preference be given by law to any religious denomination or mode of worship.

Please Take Notice: The forefathers considered all elected positions and agents of those elected to be servants, trustees, agents, substitute of we the People and that in no way higher than a special class that is greater than the People. Please take further notice that nowhere in any of the 50 Republican States does the government have power over the people.

Please Take Notice: No entity, agency, division, or subdivision may seize any property, papers, effects, or people without proper due process of law. The People must remain secure from all infringement, including the security of the children of the People;

Colorado Constitution – Bill of Rights Article II, Section 7: Security of Person and Property Searches Seizures Warrants

The people shall be secure in their persons, papers, homes and effects, from unreasonable searches and seizures; and no warrant to search any place or seize any person or things shall issue without describing the place to be searched, or the person or thing to be seized, as near as may be, nor without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation reduced to writing.

Colorado Constitution – Bill of Rights Article II, Section 16: Criminal Prosecutions Rights of Defendant

In criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right to appear and defend in person and by counsel; to demand the nature and cause of accusation; to meet the witnesses against him face to face; to have process to compel the attendance of witnesses in his behalf, and a speedy public trial by an impartial jury of the county or district in which the offense is alleged to have been committed.

Colorado Constitution – Bill of Rights Article II, Section 25: Due Process of Law

No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law.

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity, agency or subdivision may, at any time, grant to one group privileges, not granted to all of the People equally. No law shall be enacted granted to any man or woman, citizen, class of citizens, or corporation other than municipal, privileges or immunities, which, upon the same terms, shall not equally belong to all people, citizens or corporations. This may be seen to include those who have decided to receive, or not receive, particular procedures for themselves or their children;

Colorado Constitution – Bill of Rights Article II, Section 25: Ex Post Facto Laws
No ex post facto law, nor law impairing the obligation of contracts, or retrospective in its operation, or making any irrevocable grant of special privileges, franchises or immunities, shall be passed by the general assembly.

Please Take Notice: In the case of agencies, departments, all associations, and all state elected government agents, as well as any licensed corporation within the state, it will have committed maladministration, and therefore violation of the State Constitution, if that agency department, district, board, association, elected agent or anyone employed by that agent, or state administration as well as those in public corporations, attempt to implement any restrictions of any variety, or any involuntary requirements on any of the men or women, of We, the People;

Please Take Notice: All attempts to impose control over the conscience of the People regarding choices each one makes for his or herself or children, must immediately cease. The Colorado Constitution is clear that these choices of conscience are inalienable privileges as one of the People;

It is my will to resolve these issues in a peaceable and cooperative manner so as to avoid any unnecessary disturbance. I thank you for your immediate action to establish order, to redress my significant concerns, and rectify all abuses of our State Constitution. Please understand that it is your responsibility to distribute this notice to all applicable members. I come to you peaceably trusting your actions will also reflect good intentions and honorable behavior.
