Power of Attorney Testimony

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

We, Affiants, _____, People of the state of Montana (as seen in Montana Constitution Declaration of Rights Article 2 Section 1) Sui Juris, in this Court of Record, come to you, being trustees of the People, so that you must provide due care. We make the following statements;

Montana Constitution Article 2 Section 1: Popular Sovereignty;

“All political power is vested in and derived from the people. All government of right originates with the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole.”

Montana Constitution Article 2 Section 3: Inalienable Rights;

“All persons are born free and have certain inalienable rights. They include the right to clean and healthful environment and the rights of pursuing life’s basic necessities, enjoying and defending their lives and liberties, acquiring, possessing and protecting property, and seeking their safety, health and happiness in all lawful ways. In enjoying these rights, all persons recognize corresponding responsibilities.”

Please notice: _____, are in joint agreement as to care and treatment.

As such, _____, may make lawful medical decisions concerning each other’s care and treatment.

Both _____, are in agreement on this matter;

Maxim of Law- Agreements give the law to the contract. Halk. Max. 118.

Maxim of Law- The expressed agreement of the parties overcomes or prevails against the law, because the agreement of the parties makes the law of the contract. Story, Ag. s 368; Dig. 16, 3, 1, 6; 2 Coke, 73.

Affiants state: No other entity may interfere with our lawful decision-making process. We have freedom to choose treatment, or to refuse treatment. We may choose to seek another opinion. We may choose to prolong or shorten any suggested treatment without restraint or control from any entity except the laws of nature;

Affiants state:

Both parties, _____, agree to this Power of Attorney and so signify that agreement by our autographs on this document.
