Notice of Religious Freedom

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

I, _____, one of the people as seen in the Massachusetts State Constitution, comes Sui Juris, in this court of record, am giving you this notice that you and any and all of your agents and officers may be notified and give due care;

The Declared Rights in the Constitutions are the Supreme Law of the Land. Any Act, Statute, Code, Non-Positive Law, Program, Mandate or Policy created or enforced must not infringe on ANY Declared Rights of the People, the Protectors and Beneficiaries of the Trust (Constitution). They may not be altered, narrowed, limited or removed without consent or due process.

The Trustees of the government corporation (elected servants who swore an oath to uphold the Constitution, and employees of government) have been placed in a position of Trust to take care of and manage the People's business, and manage in a way that it does not infringe on declared rights and does not fail to consider the whole. I declare that the People are equally free and retain inherent, God given rights, to all of the blessings of life, liberty and safety, property, in the pursuit of happiness secured to all of the People of the 50 Republican States, with Equal Protections and that are explicitly defined in the several States Constitutions, interchangeably, as required in the Privileges and Immunities Clause of Article IV, Section 2 in the Constitution of the United States.

Part the First of the Massachusetts Constitution Article I

"All men are born free and equal, and have certain natural, essential, and unalienable rights; among which may be reckoned the right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberties; that of acquiring, possessing, and protecting property; in fine, that of seeking and obtaining their safety and happiness." [Emphasis by Highlight Added]

United States Constitution Article IV Section 2

"The Citizens of each State shall be entitled to all Privileges and Immunities of Citizens in the several States." [Emphasis by Highlight Added]

Please take notice that the People possess the inherent, natural and unalienable right to worship Almighty God, according to the dictates of their own conscience and understanding, regulated by the word of God. When establishing the Law of the Land known as the Constitution and the Laws of Nature's God, also known as the Common Law, no religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, and no person or organization's policy may excuse acts of licentiousness or remove private liberties guaranteed by the Constitutions in all 50 states. (see definition below)

Licentiousness: The indulgence of the arbitrary will of the individual, without regard to ethics or law, or respect for the rights of others. (Blacks Law Dictionary 5th Edition)

Definition of Liberty:

Freedom; exemption from extraneous control. Freedom from all restraints except such as are justly imposed by law. Freedom from restraint, under conditions essential to the equal enjoyment of the same right by others; freedom regulated by law. [...]The power of the will to follow the dictates of its unrestricted choice, and to direct the external acts of the individual without restraint, coercion, or control from other persons. [...]The word "liberty" includes and comprehends all personal rights and their enjoyment. It embraces freedom from duress; freedom from governmental interference in exercise of intellect, in formation of opinions, in the expression of them, and in action or inaction dictated by judgment. (Black's Law Dictionary 5th Edition)

Furthermore, I, one of the People, in the conscience of my own religious dictates and beliefs, declare that the penetration of any orifice on the human body by inanimate object outside of my own volition, or the injection of any substance into the human body that alters the natural immune system as created by God, any form of identification that is required to restrict or regulate any freedoms, liberties, movement or participation in society is repugnant to a particular religious covenant or sect and declared rights. Please take further notice that, in order to ensure tranquility, promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, and to protect the best interest of the preservation of my body, my temple, the People shall not be deprived or abridged of any civil and declared rights on account of religious sentiments, and the Right of freedom of religious conscience shall not be infringed. Please take notice that all 50 States Constitutions Declarations of Rights apply to the People. (see Constitutional provisions)

Part the First of the Massachusetts Constitution Text of Article II:

"It is the right as well as the duty of all men in society, publicly, and at stated seasons to worship the Supreme Being, the great Creator and Preserver of the universe. And no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession or sentiments; provided he doth not disturb the public peace, or obstruct others in their religious worship.” [Emphasis by Highlight Added]

North Carolina State Constitution Article I Sec. 13. Religious liberty.

“All persons have a natural and inalienable right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own consciences, and no human authority shall, in any case whatever, control or interfere with the rights of conscience.” [Emphasis by Highlight Added]

North Carolina State Constitution Article I Section 21 Inquiry into restraints on liberty

“Every person restrained of his liberty is entitled to a remedy to inquire into the lawfulness thereof, and to remove the restraint if unlawful, and that remedy shall not be denied or delayed. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended.” [Emphasis by Highlight Added]

Kentucky Constitution Bill of Rights Section 2

“Absolute and arbitrary power over the lives, liberty and property of freemen exists nowhere in a republic, not even in the largest majority.” [Emphasis added by Highlight]

Part the First of the Massachusetts Constitution Text of Article IV:

“The people of this commonwealth have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves, as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, which is not, or may not hereafter, be by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in Congress assembled.” [Emphasis added by Highlight]

Please take further notice that no man, woman, person, individual, corporation, or entity is entitled to exclusive or separate privileges from the community. The contract of indemnity (see definition below) between contractor/employer and employee is to remain inviolate and no man, woman, person, individual, corporation, or entity shall deprive the People of any secured right, including Religious right, privilege, or immunity. It is the right of the People to be free from discrimination upon anyone on the basis of their religious conviction or creed, Congress shall make no law impairing the obligation of contracts, including that of indemnity between employer and employee, or that which is in direct conflict with the Constitutional protected liberties of the People. Any legislative or executive process, act, mandate, policy that is an attempt to disenfranchise the Peoples’ declared rights, privileges, property, must be made by sworn affidavit, and signed by a magistrate, citing the article and section of the Constitution where the People gave the government servants authority and permission for employers to remove any Religious right, or other declared right, without consent or following due process. (see Constitutional provisions)

Indemnity: A collateral contract or assurance, by which one person engages to secure another against an anticipated loss or to prevent him from being indemnified by the legal consequences of an act or forbearance on the part of one of the parties or of some third person. Term pertains to liability for loss shifted from one person held legally responsible to another person. (Black’s Law Dictionary 5th Edition)

United States Constitution Bill of Rights Text of Amendment IX:

“The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.” [Emphasis added by Highlight]

Please take note that guidelines, rules, policies and mandates are not law and nothing can remove the rights of the people.

Marbury vs Madison 2 Branch 137, 180 (1803)

“All laws, rules and practices which are repugnant to the Constitution are null and void.”

Please take further notice that, as one of the People, it is my wish for yourself and any and all of your agents to be duly notified that if any act of discrimination or deprivation of the declared rights of the People shall occur at the hands of any man, woman, person, individual, corporation, or entity duly notified of the law and penalties herein, you may be in violation of Constitutional and Federal law and persisting with your behavior may lead to civil or criminal damages, that you may be held personally responsible and liable, as well as your corporation, organization, entity, company or agency.

Furthermore, it is my wish that you respond, in writing, by sworn affidavit, within (5) days of receiving this notice. If you do not respond, then it will be taken as tacit acquiescence that you agree that all of the claims and facts brought forth in this document are true and accurate, and that any attempt to violate the Constitutionally protected rights and liberties of the People is done only in trespass, with full knowledge and intent, as an attack against the People.

You are hereby notified and advised to cease and desist from enacting, or acting upon, all policies that attempt to enforce vaccine mandates upon your employees violating the above stated declared rights. I come to you peaceably trusting your actions will also reflect good intentions and honorable behavior.
