Notice of Religious Freedom

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

I, _____, one of the People (as seen in the Washington State Bill of Rights, Article 1 Section 1) am giving you this notice that you and your agents may provide due care and carefully act to cease and desist from all interference with the rights of the People;

Washington State Preamble -

“We, the people of the State of Washington, grateful to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for our liberties, do ordain this constitution.”

Please Take Notice: From the inception of the State of Washington Almighty God was acknowledged. The People’s right to practice religion, in its various forms, was established from that point to the present;

Washington State Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 1: Political Power;

“All political power is inherent in the people, and governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, and are established to protect and maintain individual rights.” (Highlight Added for Emphasis)

Please Take Notice: In relation to the rights of one of the People of the State of Washington, or any other of the 50 states, inalienable means rights which are not capable of being surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights. Black’s Law 5th Ed.

Please Take Further Notice: Within the Washington State Constitution, there are no provisions for removal of this very first noted basic right of “We, the People;”

Washington State Constitution – Bill of Rights Article 1, Section 5: Freedom of Speech;

“Every person may freely speak, write and publish on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right.”

Please Take Notice: Each individual of We, the People, may independently choose how, when, where, and to what extent they will worship ALMIGHTY GOD. This includes, but is not limited to, what each one of the People allows to be done physically, mentally, morally, and/or spiritually. It also includes what may be done to anyone under the authority of We, the People, including our children;

Washington State Constitution – Bill of Rights Article 1, Section 11: Religious Freedom;

“Absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief and worship, shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or disturbed in person or property on account of religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious worship, exercise or instruction, or the support of any religious establishment: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this article shall not be so construed as to forbid the employment by the state of a chaplain for such of the state custodial, correctional, and mental institutions, or by a county's or public hospital district's hospital, health care facility, or hospice, as in the discretion of the legislature may seem justified. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness or juror, in consequence of his opinion on matters of religion, nor be questioned in any court of justice touching his religious belief to affect the weight of his testimony.”

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity or agency may impinge on the decisions of conscience made by one of the People about themselves or those under their authority, their children;

Please Take Notice: The forefathers considered all elected positions and agents of those elected to be servants, trustees, agents, substitute of we the People and that in no way higher than a special class that is greater than the People. Please take further notice that nowhere in any of the 50 Republican States does the government have power over the people.

Please Take Notice: No entity, agency, division, or subdivision may seize any property, papers, effects, or people without proper due process of law. The People must remain secure from all infringement, including the security of the children of the People;

Washington State Constitution – Bill of Rights Article 1, Section 10: Administration of Justice;

“Justice in all cases shall be administered openly, and without unnecessary delay.”
(Highlight Added for Emphasis)

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity, agency or subdivision may, at any time, grant to one group privileges, not granted to all of the People equally. No law shall be enacted granted to any man or woman, citizen, class of citizens, or corporation other than municipal, privileges or immunities, which, upon the same terms, shall not equally belong to all people, citizens or corporations. This may be seen to include those who have decided to receive, or not receive, particular procedures for themselves or their children;

Washington State Constitution – Bill of Rights Article 1, Section 3: Personal Rights;

“No person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law.”

Washington State Constitution – Bill of Rights Article 1, Section 21: Trial By Jury;

“The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate, but the legislature may provide for a jury of any number less than twelve in courts not of record, and for a verdict by nine or more jurors in civil cases in any court of record, and for waiving of the jury in civil cases where the consent of the parties interested is given thereto.”

Please Take Notice: In the case of agencies, departments, all associations, and all state elected government agents, as well as any licensed corporation within the state, it will have committed maladministration, and therefore violation of the State Constitution, if that agency department, district, board, association, elected agent or anyone employed by that agent, or state administration as well as those in public corporations, attempt to implement any restrictions of any variety, or any involuntary requirements on any of the men or women, of We, the People;

Please Take Notice: All attempts to impose control over the conscience of the People regarding choices each one makes for his or herself or children, must immediately cease. The Washington State Constitution is clear that these choices of conscience are inalienable privileges as one of the People;

It is my will to resolve these issues in a peaceable and cooperative manner so as to avoid any unnecessary disturbance. I thank you for your immediate action to establish order, to redress my significant concerns, and rectify all abuses of our State Constitution. Please understand that it is your responsibility to distribute this notice to all applicable members. I come to you peaceably trusting your actions will also reflect good intentions and honorable behavior.
