Power of Attorney Testimony

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

We, Affiants, _____, People of the state of Rhode Island (as seen in Rhode Island Declaration of Certain Constitutional Rights and Principles Article 1 Section 2) Sui Juris, in this Court of Record, come to you, being trustees of the People, so that you must provide due care. We make the following statements;

Rhode Island Constitution Article 1 Section 2: Laws for Good of Whole--Burdens to Be Equally Distribute--Due Process—Equal Protection—Discrimination—No Right to Abortion Granted;

“All free governments are instituted for the protection, safety, and happiness of the people. All laws, therefore, should be made for the good of the whole; and the burdens of the state ought to be fairly distributed among its citizens. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor shall any person be denied equal protection of the laws. No otherwise qualified person shall, solely by reason of race, gender or handicap be subject to discrimination by the state, its agents or any person or entity doing business with the state. Nothing in this section shall be construed to grant or secure any right relating to abortion or the funding thereof.”

Please notice: _____, are in joint agreement as to care and treatment.

As such, _____, may make lawful medical decisions concerning each other’s care and treatment.

Both _____, are in agreement on this matter;

Maxim of Law- Agreements give the law to the contract. Halk. Max. 118.
Maxim of Law- The expressed agreement of the parties overcomes or prevails against the law, because the agreement of the parties makes the law of the contract. Story, Ag. s 368; Dig. 16, 3, 1, 6; 2 Coke, 73.

Affiants state: No other entity may interfere with our lawful decision-making process. We have freedom to choose treatment, or to refuse treatment. We may choose to seek another opinion. We may choose to prolong or shorten any suggested treatment without restraint or control from any entity except the laws of nature;

Affiants state:
Both parties, _____, agree to this Power of Attorney and so signify that agreement by our autographs on this document.
