Notice of Demand for Religious Freedom

Notice to agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

I, _____, one of the People (as seen in the State of Alaska Constitution Bill of Rights) Sui Juris am giving you this notice that you and your agents may provide due care and carefully act to cease and desist from all interference with the rights of the People;

The Alaska Constitution Preamble states: "

We the people of Alaska, grateful to God and to those who founded our nation and pioneered this great land, in order to secure and transmit to succeeding generations our heritage of political, civil, and religious liberty within the Union of States, do ordain and establish this constitution for the State of Alaska.

Article I – § 1. Inherent Rights This constitution is dedicated to the principles that all persons have a natural right to life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness, and the enjoyment of the rewards of their own industry; that all persons are equal and entitled to equal rights, opportunities, and protection under the law; and that all persons have corresponding obligations to the people and to the State.

*Please note that in relation to the rights of one of the People of the State of Alaska, or any other of the 50 states, inalienable or Inherent means rights which are not capable of being surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights.

Please further note that, within the State of Alaska Constitution, there are no provisions for removal of this very first noted basic right of "We the people."

Alaska Constitution Declaration of Rights Article I – § 5.

Every person may freely speak, write and publish his or her sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of the right.

Alaska Constitution Declaration of Rights Article I § 2. Source of Government

All political power is inherent in the people. All government originates with the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the people as a whole.

Alaska Constitution Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section § 4. Freedom of Religion

No law shall be made respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof

As a point of comparability among state constitutions, the State of Alaska Constitution Preamble states: WE THE PEOPLE of Alaska, grateful to God and to those who founded our nation and pioneered this great land, in order to secure and transmit to succeeding generations our heritage of political, civil, and religious liberty within the Union of States, do ordain and establish this constitution for the State of Alaska.

*Please take notice that, from the inception of the State of Alaska, God was acknowledged.

Please take further note that the People's rights to practice their religion, in its various forms, was established from that point to the present.

Alaska Constitution Declaration of Rights Article I § 7. Due Process

No person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law. The right of all persons to fair and just treatment in the course of legislative and executive investigations shall not be infringed.

*Please note that the Constitution delineates certain rights, speech and press, but implies others, as individual rights maintained within the United States Constitution Bill of Rights Amendment I.

United State Constitution: The First Amendment

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.”

*Please note that the right to exercise of religion is not limited to a certain time or place; but, is not only allowed, but protected, under all situations and circumstances and is to not be limited by any agency, trust indentured, elected official, or any other influence outside that of the individual.

Please note that Common Law, upon which the United States Constitution “The Supreme law of the land” is based on and does in no way allow for or make excuse for any action that is repugnant to a Persons Constitutional Rights.

Please further note that the present “mandates” disallowing the People’s inalienable and indefeasible rights to choose religious right, based on strong religious convictions, is without merit and forms an illegal precedent for further overreach of governmental agencies in the future. It is an attempt to disenfranchise and diminish the status of We the People to accomplish an arbitrary end of questionable merit. It is licentious in nature, acting without regard to law, ethics, or the rights of others. Licentiousness, or practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state may be construed to have occurred with all trust indenture servants of the state and state agencies ad associations mentioned herein having acted in a licentious and disruptive manner related to the complaints herein.

We the People, acting on our Constitutional authority as the progeny of the creators and sustainers of the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Alaska, do hereby demand immediate relief from all such mandates and restrictions upon our liberty interests and rights as we the People. No agency, elected trustee, or entity has or will have authority to direct the private decisions of the People.

My desire is to settle this matter in a calm and harmonious atmosphere of mutual respect. However, no further infringement on the People’s rights will be tolerated! Please see to it that this matter is resolved properly and expeditiously. I come to you peaceably trusting your actions will also reflect good intentions and honorable behavior.
