Notice of Religious Freedom

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

I, _____, one of the People (as seen in the Wyoming State Declaration of Rights, Article 1 Section 1) am giving you this notice that you and your agents may provide due care and carefully act to cease and desist from all interference with the rights of the People;

Wyoming Preamble - We, the people of the State of Wyoming, grateful to God for our civil, political and religious liberties, and desiring to secure them to ourselves and perpetuate them to our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution.

Please Take Notice: From the inception of the State of Wyoming, Almighty God was acknowledged. The People's right to practice religion, in its various forms, was established from that point to the present;

Wyoming Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 1: Power Inherent in the People

"All power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and instituted for their peace, safety and happiness; for the advancement of these ends they have at all times an inalienable and indefeasible right to alter, reform or abolish the government in such manner as they may think proper."

(Highlight Added for Emphasis)

Please Take Notice: In relation to the rights of one of the People of the State of Wyoming, or any other of the 50 states, inalienable means rights which are not capable of being surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights. Black's Law 5th Ed.

Please Take Further Notice: Within the Wyoming State Constitution, there are no provisions for removal of this very first noted basic right of "We, the People;"

Wyoming Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 20: Freedom of Speech and Press; Libel; Truth a Defense;

"Every person may freely speak, write and publish on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right; and in all trials for libel, both civil and criminal, the truth, when published with good intent and [for] justifiable ends, shall be a sufficient defense, the jury having the right to determine the facts and the law, under direction of the court."

Please Take Notice: Each individual of We, the People, may independently choose how, when, where, and to what extent they will worship ALMIGHTY GOD. This includes, but is not limited to, what each one of the People allows to be done physically, mentally, morally, and/or spiritually. It also includes what may be done to anyone under the authority of We, the People, including our children;

Wyoming Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 18: Religious Liberty;

"The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship without discrimination or preference shall be forever guaranteed in this state, and no person shall be rendered incompetent to hold any office of trust or profit, or to serve as a witness or juror, because of his opinion on any matter of religious belief whatever; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of the state."

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity or agency may impinge on the decisions of conscience made by one of the People about themselves or those under their authority, their children;

Wyoming Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 19: Appropriations for Sectarian or Religious Societies or Institutions Prohibited;

"No money of the state shall ever be given or appropriated to any sectarian or religious society or institution."

Please Take Notice: The forefathers considered all elected positions and agents of those elected to be servants, trustees, agents, substitute of we the People and that in no way higher than a special class that is greater than the People. Please take further notice that nowhere in any of the 50 Republican States does the government have power over the people.

Please Take Notice: No entity, agency, division, or subdivision may seize any property, papers, effects, or people without proper due process of law. The People must remain secure from all infringement, including the security of the children of the People;

Wyoming Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 4: Security Against Search and Seizure;

“The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures shall not be violated, and no warrant shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by affidavit, particularly describing the place to be searched or the person or thing to be seized.”

Wyoming Constitution – Declaration of Rights Article 1, Section 10: Right of Accused to Defend;

“In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right to defend in person and by counsel, to demand the nature and cause of the accusation, to have a copy thereof, to be confronted with the witnesses against him, to have compulsory process served for obtaining witnesses, and to a speedy trial by an impartial jury of the county or district in which the offense is alleged to have been committed. When the location of the offense cannot be established with certainty, venue may be placed in the county or district where the corpus delicti [delicti] is found, or in any county or district in which the victim was transported.”

(Highlight Added for Emphasis)

Please Take Notice: No legislative entity, agency or subdivision may, at any time, grant to one group privileges, not granted to all of the People equally. No law shall be enacted granted to any man or woman, citizen, class of citizens, or corporation other than municipal, privileges or immunities, which, upon the same terms, shall not equally belong to all people, citizens or corporations. This may be seen to include those who have decided to receive, or not receive, particular procedures for themselves or their children;

Wyoming Constitution – Declaration of Rights: Equal Political Rights;

“Since equality in the enjoyment of natural and civil rights is only made sure through political equality, the laws of this state affecting the political rights and privileges of its citizens shall be without distinction of race, color, sex, or any circumstance or condition whatsoever other than individual incompetency, or unworthiness duly ascertained by a court of competent jurisdiction.”

Please Take Notice: In the case of agencies, departments, all associations, and all state elected government agents, as well as any licensed corporation within the state, it will have committed maladministration, and therefore violation of the State Constitution, if that agency department, district, board, association, elected agent or anyone employed by that agent, or state administration as well as those in public corporations, attempt to implement any restrictions of any variety, or any involuntary requirements on any of the men or women, of We, the People;

Please Take Notice: All attempts to impose control over the conscience of the People regarding choices each one makes for his or herself or children, must immediately cease. The Wyoming Constitution is clear that these choices of conscience are inalienable privileges as one of the People;

It is my will to resolve these issues in a peaceable and cooperative manner so as to avoid any unnecessary disturbance. I thank you for your immediate action to establish order, to redress my significant concerns, and rectify all abuses of our State Constitution. Please understand that it is your responsibility to distribute this notice to all applicable members. I come to you peaceably trusting your actions will also reflect good intentions and honorable behavior.
