Notice of Demand for Religious Freedom

Notice to agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent.

I, _____, one of the People (as seen in the New Hampshire State Constitution Bill of Rights) am giving you this notice that you and your agents may provide due care and carefully act to cease and desist from all interference with the rights of the People;

Take notice, that with authority reserved under the New Hampshire constitution, I hereby claim the unalienable right and authority of right to reform under Article 10, with supporting definition outlined in Article 38 - Social Virtues Inculcated;

[Art.] 38. [Social Virtues Inculcated.] A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the constitution, and a constant adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, industry, frugality, and all the social virtues, are indispensably necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty and good government; the people ought, therefore, to have a particular regard to all those principles in the choice of their officers and representatives, and they have a right to require of their lawgivers and magistrates, an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of government. June 2, 1784 [Highlight added for Emphasis.]

New Hampshire State Constitution – Bill of Rights, Article 1. [Equality of Men; Origin and Object of Government.] All men are born equally free and independent; Therefore, all government of right originates from the people, is founded in consent, and instituted for the general good. June 2, 1784

New Hampshire State Constitution – Bill of Rights, [Art.] 2. [Natural Rights.] All men have certain natural, essential, and inherent rights among which are, the enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting, property; and, in a word, of seeking and obtaining happiness. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by this state on account of race, creed, color, sex or national origin. June 2, 1784

New Hampshire State Constitution – Bill of Rights [Art.] 2-b. [Right of Privacy.] An individual's right to live free from governmental intrusion in private or personal information is natural, essential, and inherent. December 5, 2018

New Hampshire State Constitution – Bill of Rights [Art.] 4. [Rights of Conscience Unalienable.] Among the natural rights, some are, in their very nature unalienable, because no equivalent can be given or received for them. Of this kind are the Rights of Conscience. June 2, 1784

New Hampshire State Constitution – Bill of Rights [Art.] 5. [Religious Freedom Recognized.] Every individual has a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and reason; and no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession, sentiments, or persuasion; provided he doth not disturb the public peace or disturb others in their religious worship. June 2, 1784

Please further note that the present “mandates” disallowing the People’s inalienable and indefeasible rights to choose religious exemption, based on strong religious convictions, is without merit and forms an illegal precedent for further overreach of governmental agencies in the future. It is an attempt to disenfranchise and diminish the status of We the People to accomplish an arbitrary end of questionable merit. It is licentious in nature, acting without regard to law, ethics, or the rights of others. Licentiousness, or practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state may be construed to have occurred with all trust indenture servants of the state and state agencies ad associations mentioned herein having acted in a licentious and disruptive manner related to the complaints herein.

We the People, acting on our Constitutional authority as the progeny of the creators and sustainers of the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California, do hereby demand immediate relief from all such mandates and restrictions upon our liberty interests and rights as we the People. No agency, elected trustee, or entity has or will have authority to direct the private decisions of the People.

My desire is to settle this matter in a calm and harmonious atmosphere of mutual respect. However, no further infringement on the People’s rights will be tolerated.

Please see to it that this matter is resolved properly and expeditiously.
