

To: _____

_____

_____

From: _____

_____

_____

Notice of Demand for Religious Freedom

Notice to agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

I, _____, one of the People (as seen in the Louisiana State Constitution Bill of Rights) am giving you this notice that you and your agents may provide due care and carefully act to cease and desist from all interference with the rights of the People;

The Louisiana Constitution Preamble states: " We, the people of Louisiana, grateful to Almighty God for the civil, political, economic, and religious liberty, and property; afford opportunity for the fullest development of the individual; assure equality of rights; promote the health, safety, education, and welfare of the people; maintain a representative and orderly government; ensure domestic tranquility; provide for the common defense; and secure the blessings of freedom and justice to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution.

Please take notice that, from the inception of the State of Louisiana, Almighty God was acknowledged.

Please take further note that the People's right to practice their religion liberty, in its various forms, was established from that point to the present.

Article I Section 1: Origin and Purpose of Government: All government, of right, originates with the people, is founded on their will alone, and is instituted to protect the rights of the individual and for the good of the whole. Its only legitimate ends are to secure justice for all, preserve peace, protect the rights, and promote the happiness and general welfare of the people. The rights enumerated in this Article are inalienable by the state and shall be preserved inviolate by the state.

All people are by nature free and independent and have inalienable rights. Among these are enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing, and protecting property, and pursuing and obtaining safety, happiness, and privacy,...

Please note that in relation to the rights of one of the People of the State of Louisiana, or any other of the 50 states, inalienable means rights which are not capable of being surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights.

Please further note that, within the Louisiana State Constitution, there are no provisions for removal of this very first noted basic right of "We the people."

Louisiana State Constitution Article I Section 2: Due Process of Law: No person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, except by due process of law.

Louisiana State Constitution Article I Section 3: Right to Individual Dignity: No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws. No law shall discriminate against a person because of race or religious ideas, beliefs, or affiliations....

Louisiana State Constitution Article I Section 5: Every person shall be secure in his person, property, communications, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches, seizures, or invasions of privacy...

Louisiana State Constitution Article I Section 8: Declaration of Rights: Freedom of Religion No law shall be enacted respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof.

Louisiana State Constitution Article I Section 9: Right of Assembly and Petition: No law shall impair the right of any person to assemble peaceably or to petition government for a redress of grievances.

Free exercise and enjoyment of religion without discrimination or preference are guaranteed. This liberty of conscience does not excuse acts that are licentious or inconsistent with the peace or safety of the State.

Please note that licentious behavior must not occur on the part of any person. Therefore, avoiding licentious behavior would apply to any person, as an agent of the State of Louisiana, who attempts to inflict a mandate on one of the people of the State of Louisiana. Licentious behavior may be construed to mean acting without regard to law, ethics, or the rights of others.

Please note that in relation to the rights of one of the People of any of the 50 states, including Louisiana, franchise meaning freedom from servitude or restraint and disfranchisement, means the removal of rights from one of the People. No member of this state shall be disfranchised.

Louisiana State Constitution Article I Section 12 Freedom from Discrimination: In access to public areas, accommodations, and facilities, every person shall be free from discrimination based on race, religion, or national ancestry and from arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable discrimination based on age, sex, or physical condition.

Louisiana State Constitution Article I Section 20 Right to Humane Treatment: No law shall subject any person to euthanasia, to torture, or to cruel, excessive, or unusual punishment

Louisiana State Constitution Article I Section 26 State Sovereignty: The people of this state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free and sovereign state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, pertaining thereto, which is not, or may not hereafter be, by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in congress assembled.

Cruel or unusual punishment may not be inflicted, or excessive fines imposed. Loss of income based on a religious held belief is an excessive fine.

Please note that the requirement of the Constitution is the avoidance of excessive imposition of results based on perceptions of arbitrary definitions of misconduct. No misconduct has or will occur; however, the state has attempted to define misconduct as non-compliance with a forced mandate that has no standing in law.

Please note that the constitution delineates certain rights, speech and press, but implies others, as individual rights maintained within the United States Constitution Bill of Rights Amendment I.

United State Constitution Amendment I

Text of Amendment I: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Please note that the right to exercise of religion is not limited to a certain time or place; but, is not only allowed, but protected, under all situations and circumstances and is to not be limited by any agency, trust indentured, elected official, or any other influence outside that of the individual.

A person may not be disqualified from entering or pursuing a business, profession, vocation, or employment because of sex, race, creed, color, or national or ethnic origin.

Please note that equal protection of law describes equal rights and privileges of law and therefore makes null and void any attempt to cause harm personally or financially to any one of the People in the State of Louisiana. As the illegal mandate, disallowing basic rights of the People, violates equal protection of laws, it must be immediately withdrawn and removed from any possibility of further harm to we the People.

Please note that Common Law, upon which the United States Constitution and the Louisiana Constitution are based, was and by the most recent preapproval of such, is, the law of the land and does in no way allow for or make excuse for any action that is repugnant to either constitution.

Please further note that the present "mandates" disallowing the People's inalienable and indefeasible rights to choose religious exemption, based on strong religious convictions, is without merit and forms an illegal precedent for further overreach of governmental agencies in the future. It is an attempt to disenfranchise and diminish the status of We the People to accomplish an arbitrary end of questionable merit. It is licentious in nature, acting without regard to law, ethics, or the rights of others. Licentiousness, or practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state may be construed to have occurred with all trust indenture servants of the state and state agencies ad associations mentioned herein having acted in a licentious and disruptive manner related to the complaints herein.

We the People, acting on our Constitutional authority as the progeny of the creators and sustainers of the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, do hereby demand immediate relief from all such mandates and restrictions upon our liberty interests and rights as we the People. No agency, elected trustee, or entity has or will have authority to direct the private decisions of the People.

My desire is to settle this matter in a calm and harmonious atmosphere of mutual respect. However, no further infringement on the People's rights will be tolerated! Please see to it that this matter is resolved properly and expeditiously. My rights from God are put forth in our United States Constitution and the Constitution of the great State of Louisiana grant my Religious exclusion from this mandate. I come to you peaceably trusting your actions will also reflect good intentions and honorable behavior.

Date: _____

_____
Autograph