Power of Attorney Testimony

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

We, Affiants, _____, People of the state of Massachusetts (as seen in Massachusetts Constitution Declaration of Rights Article I) Sui Juris, in this Court of Record, come to you, being trustees of the People, so that you must provide due care. We make the following statements;

Massachusetts Constitution Article I: Declaration of Rights;

“All men are born free and equal, and have certain natural, essential, and unalienable rights; among which may be reckoned the right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberties; that of acquiring, possessing, and protecting property; in fine, that of seeking and obtaining their safety and happiness.”

Massachusetts Constitution Article IV: Declaration of Rights;

“The people of this commonwealth have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves, as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, which is not, or may not hereafter, be by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in Congress assembled.”

Please notice: _____, are in joint agreement as to care and treatment.

As such, _____, may make lawful medical decisions concerning each other’s care and treatment.

Both _____, are in agreement on this matter;

Maxim of Law- Agreements give the law to the contract. Halk. Max. 118.

Maxim of Law- The expressed agreement of the parties overcomes or prevails against the law, because the agreement of the parties makes the law of the contract. Story, Ag. s 368; Dig. 16, 3, 1, 6; 2 Coke, 73.

Affiants state: No other entity may interfere with our lawful decision-making process. We have freedom to choose treatment, or to refuse treatment. We may choose to seek another opinion. We may choose to prolong or shorten any suggested treatment without restraint or control from any entity except the laws of nature;

Affiants state:

Both parties, _____, agree to this Power of Attorney and so signify that agreement by our autographs on this document.
